Explore Portugal
WITH LITERATURE FOR ALL OF US | MAY 1 – 11, 2020

Join our literary, historical, and cultural tour of Portugal and explore Lisbon, Porto, and the Alentejo region!

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

• Learning about the layers of history dating to occupation by the Phoenicians, Romans, Visigoths and the Moors in small group walking tours in Lisbon and numerous small towns
• Excursion to Sintra, a “fairy tale” town of palaces and lush vegetation
• An evening of Portuguese culture with Fado music
• Tasting port in Porto and wine tasting at a wine estate in the Douro Valley
• Visiting “Convento de Cristo” in Tomar, the headquarters of the legendary Knights Templar
• Exploring Neolithic stone formations over 8,000 years old at Almemdres Cromlech
• Learning about Portugal’s Roman history in Evora with its 2nd century Roman temple
• Walking tour of Porto’s historic city center, a UNESCO World Heritage site
• Engaging in literary discussions led by Karen Thomson and visiting one of the world’s finest collection of 300,000 ancient books at University Library in Coimbra
• Go back in time (while enjoying amazing creature comforts) during our Stay at Torre de Palma Wine Hotel which produces wine and oil and keeps Lusitano horses
